ALL ABOARD THE BUS . . .

. . . for fun, surprises, thrills, and what we, the Crier staff, hope will be a journey of enjoyable reading.

The very first B. H. S. representative we met was the school bus, which took us to our first day of school; and when our twelve years of work and play came to an end, this same bus deposited us at our door for the last time. As the theme for this year's Crier we have chosen this symbol of our school, our same faithful school bus. Come with us and climb aboard the bus for our final trip through Boardman High School.

Neither snow nor rising prices could squelch the efforts of this year's Crier staff. The editor would now like to have the pleasure of thanking the people who worked so hard with her to make your Crier a success. To Nanci Martin, the Assistant Editor, to the art staff, to the Business Managers, and above all to Miss Walsh, who helped us in so many ways, to Mr. Genuske, who kept us out of the "red", and to Mr. Allen and his staff, whose photographic skill enlivened your book, the editor says "Thanks again for your help."

Dedication

MR. ELDON L. HAWK

THIS is the story of a gallant man, a friend who endeared himself to the hearts of both young and old. Only a few were aware of his illness, for who would imagine that such a gay manner and a "willing to help" attitude could hide poor health? How shocked and saddened were those who knew him when they heard of his sudden death. When forced by illness to stop teaching, he created his own position, declaring that he would rather "wear out" than "rust away." As Director of Audio Visual Aids he helped to bring the outside world into the classroom. As Visiting Teacher he was always willing to take home any student who was ill, or to substitute for an absent teacher. His cheery smile and pleasant disposition were familiar to the little first grader as well as to the seniors and graduates. No one shall ever forget him. It is with honor and sincerity that, as our small tribute, we dedicate the 1951 Crier to the memory of our friend and teacher, Mr. Eldon L. Hawk.

In memory of

who departed this life

March 13, 1951

"I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away.
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you—O, you who the wildest yearn
For an old-time step and the glad return,
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here.
Think of him still as the same. I say,
He is not dead—He is just away."

James Whitcomb Riley

Faculty . . .

ALL buses must have guides, and our bus is no exception. With our faculty acting as guides to those passing through the halls of B. H. S., we know as we come to the end of our journey that they have succeeded in leading us to a higher education.

Although at times he may seem unaware of their efforts, the wise Boardman student fully realizes the tireless patience which our teachers possess. This patience, combined with unselfishness and skill, has given the student body the opportunity of becoming intelligent citizens of our community.

As we disembark from our bus, we can be proud and grateful that this Boardman faculty has guided us so willingly and thoroughly during our journey.

We introduce our Chief Drivers . . .

Best wishes to the Class of 1951.

You have had the privilege of contributing to the history of Boardman, of creating the atmosphere that prevails here. You have had a greater privilege—that of taking with you a rich heritage of memories that will stir and comfort you in the future.

However obscure or great that work may be, the best preparation for it is to do the work of each hour as it comes, each day, each month, and each year to the best of your ability.

I. J. NISONGER

Greetings to the Class of '51:

You have just completed a very important period of your lives. The habits you have formed and attitudes you have developed will remain with you through life and will largely determine the degree of happiness and success you may expect to achieve.

The characteristics of courtesy, cooperation, and honesty which you have amply demonstrated have made it a pleasure to work with you and are the tools with which you may build a happy future.

Please accept my congratulations and very best wishes for your success.

Seniors . . .

EVERYONE will agree that the most important passengers on our bus are the members of the senior class. The class of '51 have shown that they are not merely sight-seers on a pleasure trip, but travelers seeking higher education.

Although this year's senior class is small, it has proved itself mighty, both scholastically and athletically. We shall long remember both the efforts put forth to attain these high honors and the numerous benefits received.

In saying "farewell" the senior class would like to express a final word of thanks to the guides, our faculty, and a hearty wish for a pleasant journey to the remaining fellow passengers.

Senior "Execs" lead way . . .

SEATED: P. Geiger; E. Peterson; G. Rauschenberger (President); J. Wilkins; D. Lance.

STANDING: Mr. Williams (Adviser); R. Wellington; J. McConnell; L. Curran; L. DuVall.

Applause greets Scholarship Team . . .

SITTING: Walter Spikell; N. Pilgrim; J. Amstutz; M. Williams; J. Rosen; R. Zupko; B. Estep.
STANDING: C. Anderson; J. Solomon; D. Crouse.

For the first time in Boardman High School history the members of the scholarship team all placed in the first quarter of the county. Four students, David Crouse, Walter Spikell, Nancy Pilgrim, and Jack Amstutz placed third, sixth, seventh, and tenth respectively in the county. May next year's team have as much success!

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Carol Erb, who died January 19, 1949.

"And then I think of one who in her youthful beauty died,
The fair meek blossom that grew up and faded by my side.
Yet not unmeet it was that one, like that young friend of ours,
So gentle and so beautiful, should perish with the flowers."

William C. Bryant.

"We will lead the way tomorrow, for we have the will today."

. . . Class History

The Class of 1951 throughout their twelve years of school have kept their memories in book form. Today this book will be opened and these memories made known to all.

Here on page one we see the first grade of Boardman as they looked on that bright September morning in 1938. Aren't they an exuberant group? They have just untied themselves from their mothers' apron strings and will spend the greatest part of the next twelve years under the guidance of their Alma Mater.

We see Miss McIntosh's room presenting a program and little Linda Curran dancing on top of her desk. At the time it was rumored that she was a talented dancer; but upon inquiring, we discovered that Linda had never taken a dancing lesson. Tch, tch! Fibbing at such a tender age!

It looks here as if we had already turned our thoughts toward domestic life while still in the second grade. Each recess cute little couples could be seen strolling through the halls. Playing house was the main diversion and took up a good deal of our time.

There goes little Francis Sandstrom to represent the third grade at the County Spelling Bee at Canfield. His path seems to have changed. Now Sandy operates between Boardman and Columbiana. But then time can change the best of people!

Do you remember how the fourth grade girls were favored with bags of candy from Casanova McConnell? Romance took its first foothold. Eleanore Hanigovsky was a new arrival in the fourth grade, you know; and Barbara Whitley took an immediate dislike to her. It was certainly not the best way to accept a newcomer, but everyone enjoyed the blow-by-blow battle that followed. That year the girls learned their first lesson in cosmetics when they all tried that gorgeous orange shade by Tangee. Really, Miss Riley, they didn't know that the color took a little time to come out!

Will we ever forget Miss Porter and her tennis shoe? She really had her troubles—to say nothing of ours after she was through! Charles Agnew took a sudden dislike to bubble gum when Miss Porter, upon finding him munching away during class time, made him chew five sticks at once.

Romance was in full swing by sixth grade as we saw Jimmy Nichols jilt Patty Geiger for her sister Marcia. But as the old saying goes, "All's fair in love and war." Everyone seemed to have birthday parties that year, and June found us quite breathless from blowing out so many candles and playing games. Remember those vicious baseball games in sixth grade? Leona "The Powerhouse" Gilboy tossed her bat down and raced for first. The bat, however, came to rest on the ankle of our poor high school cadet teacher. She didn't spend six weeks on crutches for nothing!

We will always remember seventh grade and the organization of the new Student Council. It sponsored Friday afternoon dances and instituted a monitor system in the junior high. John Kirby and Ronnie Green have certainly changed since those days when they preferred dancing with each other to dancing with the girls.

Class Will . . .

We, the Class of 1951, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills heretofore made by us.

Article I To Mr. Nisonger, Mr. Tidd, and our ever-loving faculty we bequeath our left-over patience and understanding; and we give them a heartfelt "Thanks" for all they have done for us.

Article II To the Class of '52, we leave our many football and basketball victories and our wonderful year as seniors.

Article III To "Bo" Hallet we bequeath our appreciation for his deep understanding and constant smile.

Article IV To the underclassmen we leave our worn-out dates, our hours in the Blue Room, two-inch lockers, high-strung emotions, those restful summer vacations, and above all, a moment of silent prayer.

Each member of this class, in order to leave a living remembrance to dear old B. H. S., does hereby bequeath the following:

Dean Delano Adcock bequeaths his lengthy explanations of a simple fact to Barbara Morgan.

Charles Myron Agnew bequeaths his famous potatoes to the Irish.

Class Prophecy . . .

In this melody-minded world of 1969 everyone eats, sleeps, and talks music. For instance, let's eavesdrop on this conversation between two of our Boardman alumnae, Carol Ransom, head display decorator for McKelvey's and Ellen Peterson, prominent newspaper publisher.

Carol: It seems so "Long Ago and Far Away" since we were in high school. Why, most of our classmates are "Flying High" by now. While strolling along "The Sidewalks of New York" last summer I saw Dean Adcock going into the Stork Club where he is head waiter. I followed him in and was startled to see Marilyn Amey giving her interpretation of "Mumbo Jumbo." Amid the applause which greeted her number "The Band Played On," led by Dave Lance.

After leaving the club I decided to tour the Art Institute. Whom should I see but Irene Owens modeling for "The Old Master Painter," Jerry Solomon. I thought, "Goodnight, Irene!" What are you doing here?" During our brief visit she pointed out Jerry's prize-winning portrait of Jeanne Eyster entitled "Jeannie with the Light Brown Hair."

Later in the afternoon I put on my "Old Gray Bonnet" and went to visit poor Jay Chuck who was then a patient at the Kreider Memorial Hospital, endowed by our classmate John David. Jay had been hit by a car driven by Dorris Ghering; however, his injuries won't prevent him from playing in the Rose Bowl game. Leaving the hospital "I Was Walking Along Minding My Business" when I met Barbara Estep, the chief staff physician, and Zelma McKibben, now a nurse.

Since they were "Going My Way," we had dinner together at Jerry Carlson's Swedish Smorgasbord. Who should be having "Tea For Two" at the next table but "Margie" Williams, a math teacher at Walter Spikell's school for the feeble-minded, and John Amy, manager of the New York Yankees. John had just purchased Jerry Suess from the Cleveland Indians for two million dollars.

The next day, while standing "Underneath the Arches," I met Carol McCrudden, now a prominent Fifth Avenue milliner. She was already dreaming up new designs for "The Easter Parade."

Ellen: Guess whom I saw in "California!" I went to the circus and watched Ronnie Green, "The Man on the Flying Trapeze," Nancy Woodward, the bareback rider, Dick Beck, the strong man, and Nancianne Martin, the fat woman. Walter Mermis was there, too, collecting autographs of the circus performers.

Upon leaving, I heard someone yelling "Yes, We Have No Bananas!" and there was Nick Rini driving his fruit truck up the street.

"That Lucky Old Sun" was beginning to set as I entered Hollywood. Soon it was as dark as "Black Magic," so I stopped at the home of Marilyn Parshall, make-up director for the Nischwitz Studio. Marilyn told me that her boss, Dave Burns, had just put Sally Hess and Carole Bodin on contract for their new musical production The Life of Sara Vaughn.

Bidding Marilyn good-bye, I took a taxi to my hotel in Beverly Hills. What a surprise it was to discover Raymond Wylam driving for the Wellington Cab Company!

The next morning I ate breakfast at Jerry Obendorfer's Coffee Shop. Jerry certainly has changed. Can you remember the good old "School Days" when he wouldn't even look at coffee? While there I visited with Delores Pounders, who is an accompanist at the Katharine Hendricks Dancing Schools.

As I hurried out the door, I practically fell over John Craig, who was sitting on the curb reading the want ads.

That afternoon the long trip home began; and to relieve the monotony, I invited Marilyn Evans to ride part way with me. You know that she has a "Home on the Range" in Colorado. We turned the radio on just in time to hear a program by Barbara Whitley who had just replaced Sister Sue.

When we arrived at Marilyn's home the next morning, Dorothy Felger was there to greet us. She had been "Keeping the Home Fires Burning" while Marilyn was away.

Continuing my trip that afternoon I stopped at a service station for some gasoline. The owner was none other than John Kirby, and Frank Gustinella was helping him. "Some Day" they are thinking of going into partnership with Leonard Corll and Bob Conway in the wrecking service.

Carol: If you think that is funny, you should see Joan Dow and Marilyn Pugh in their new gymnasium. Their best customer is Eleanor Halt, who is training for her match with Margaret Davison. Leo Gilboy is Margaret's manager.

Ellen: "By the Way," I was in Jean Faulkner's Antique Shop the other day and saw Angelo Iannucci pricing an old football. He still has "No Other Love."

One day down at my office Richard Kelso came in to apply for a job as sports writer. He wanted to cover the game between the Cleveland Browns and the New York Giants. Frank Santangelo and Al Hammar are the Browns' star players now.

You know how news is—"Easy Come, Easy Go." Dick told me that Eleanor Hanigovsky gets her name in the papers at least once a week. She is still acting as bridesmaid for all her relatives and friends. Just a week ago she had been an attendant for Stella Syrakis and the week before that, for Marguerite Palombo.

Carol: Incidently, another socialite in the news last week was Melva Wallets. She is going West again to take over her father's photography studio in "California."

I was "Thinking of You" the other day while enjoying a visit with Delores Allen. She is now singing with the famous trio of Sandstrom, McConnell, and Remner. "Remember" our quartet when we were seniors?

Well, Ellen, I must say "So Long For A While." I have to see Dick Rusell about an estimate on my house.

Ellen: It was so nice to meet you again, Carol. I hope "I'll Be Seeing You" some time soon.

"Charlie's Aunt" visits Senior Class . . .

The senior play, Charley's Aunt, is a light-hearted three act comedy by Brandon Thomas. The setting is St. Oldes College, Oxford, England. Two students, Charley Wykeham and Jack Chesney, invite their girl friends, Amy Spettigue and Kitty Verdun, to visit them, with an aunt of Charlie's, Dona Lucia d'Alvadores, as chaperon. Because Dona Lucia is unavoidably detained at the last minute, the boys force their classmate, Lord Babberly, to become an aunt. Sir Francis Chesney, Jack's father, and Stephen Spettigue, Amy's uncle, complicate matters by falling in love with the supposed aunt. Lord Babberly's futile attempts to evade them, and his ungainly management of long skirts afford much hilarity. The real fun begins when Dona Lucia herself and her ward, Ela Delahay, step into the picture. The confusion is eventually straightened out, however, and the play ends happily with Charley's Aunt falling in love with Ela.

"We three girls want to be alone."
"It's lucky Uncle is away in town, or I don't think we could have come."

"Please! I'm no ordinary woman!"

"How can I remember I'm a woman when my trousers show?"

Classes . . .

THE end of the journey must eventually come for all travelers. The three classes which constitute the main body of the passenger list find that they are rapidly reaching their destination. In striving for this goal they enthusiastically maintain and uphold the spirit of Boardman handed down to them by previous students.

During their years in high school the underclassmen have learned to mix business with pleasure with the result that they live a happy, well-balanced life. Days crowded with classroom events, enlivened by discussions, films and trips make up a calendar of memorable occasions.

With these thoughts in mind, may every class eagerly look forward to a bright future.

Juniors pass halfway mark in journey . . .

The class of '52 began their year successfully by being awarded a long-desired theater party for their victory in the P. T. A. membership campaign.

Choosing the class rings was one of the major duties performed by the officers: President Edward Fiffick, Vice President Ronald Pellin, Secretary Dorothy Hershberger, and Treasurer Ruth Ann Geis, assisted by the capable executive committee. The class representative to the Student Council was Marilyn Bowmaster.

The problem of filling the treasury in order to finance the Prom was tackled by sponsoring concessions and after-game dances. Among these was the Homecoming Dance, honoring the Queen, her court, and the football team. The highlight of the year was the dance of dances—the Junior-Senior Prom. Directing the class in their successful year was Miss Rukenbrod.

Sophomores now seasoned travelers . . .

The sophomores for the year 1950-51 proved themselves to be a group from which much can be expected. They were full of vigor, school spirit, and skill both scholastically and athletically. Many sophomores excelled in the various fields of school activities; and the class can be proud of its hard working officers: George Elioff, President; Dick Kadis, Vice President; Mary Lou Barton, Secretary; Marilyn Black, Treasurer; and Arden Champion, Student Council Representative. Each member strove hard to gain recognition for himself in the eyes of both his fellow students and his teachers; and the whole class won for itself a reputation for being loyal B.H.S. fans, as was evidenced by their regular attendance at Boardman games.

Credit for the class's success goes also to Miss Atkinson, its Adviser.

It is with anticipation that the sophomores look forward to their junior year when they will join the ranks of upperclassmen.

Freshmen board bus in September . . .

Three cheers for the mighty Freshmen, our newest additions to B.H.S.! Led by the first girl President in the history of Boardman High School, Jane Middleton, assisted by Don Rodway as Vice-President, Barbara Sittig as Secretary, Dave McCartney as Treasurer, and Margaret Vierow as Student Council Representative, they have already displayed their talents and proved themselves a memorable class. Yes, this class of '54 is off to a good start with such assets as top ranking honor roll students, future football, basketball, and baseball stars, and a varsity cheerleader, Sally Gaskeen.

The Freshmen were disappointed when the annual Freshman-Sophomore Frolic was cancelled by the big snow in December.

Miss Walsh was the adviser for the Freshman class.

Study Hall . . . afternoon social hour.

Faculty and students put heads together.

. . . into B. H. S. classrooms

Biologists give "Oscar" another workout.

Typists dash out letters.

Mrs. Martin prescribes for Fred.

Jack rings the bell in science class.

Parker's pens fly over brief(?) forms.

A historical moment.

Activities . . .

OFTEN our little school bus finds himself shining in his best coat of paint and on his way to one of the special events sponsored by B.H.S. Students are seen dashing madly to board the B.H.S. Special for dances, club meetings, and theatrical and musical productions.

In numerous and interesting ways Boardman encourages its students to develop not only their minds, but also their personalities and qualities of leadership. This is met by warm response from the students, as they all "pitch in" to help with the extra-curricular activities.

Each year the members of these clubs add their success, popularity, and good times to the history of each organization.

Through the hallowed halls of Boardman rang out a cry: "One mathematician in the Activities Room" (to instruct the Crier editor in the ways of a slide rule). Then came the trip to Cleveland. Miss Walsh and the editors spent an enjoyable day which featured lunch, a movie, and a trip through the Mueller Art Cover and Binding Company. They even found time to accomplish their mission—the choice of a cover.

To Nanci Martin our sincerest wishes for a bottle of glue that glues; to Bill Abey our apologies for the constant invasion of his telephone; and to the staff our hopes for a course in journalism.

One dark night when we were all in bed, the Bugle editor was sitting up with a deadline just aread — editorial trouble again. The Associate Editor had her worries, too. To keep a big scoop a secret is a hard thing to do. "Antics by Ang" and "Eavesdrops by Ellen" were our favorite features columns this year—the best ever, so we hear. The inquiring reporter mystified many with her odd questions. As a result in each issue appeared many weird suggestions in answer to these strange questions. This year a new column appeared, called "Fashion Fads." All these things plus the rest of the staff made our Bugle the best we ever had.

. . . Student Loan aids poverty-stricken

"Need money? Don't moan! See the Student Loan!" This is the motto of the Student Loan, whose purpose is to assist students in financial distress. The stockholders, who are members of the senior class, elected the Board of Directors. These directors, with the aid of Mr. Bohn, decided the rate of interest, established the bookkeeping system, secured insurance for the stock, and carried on business transactions. They also shared the profits at the end of the year.

Endeavoring to live up to its name, the members of Boardman's Photo Arts Club have truly established the fact that photography is an art. President Bud Hammar and Vice-President Don Liechty were constantly alert and ready to aid the school by taking pictures of all sizes and shapes. A vote of thanks also goes to those members who worked with Mr. Allen.

During the course of the year the Club was entertained by a Hallowe'en Party, a talk by Mr. Lescre from the Newport Camera Shop, and a tour of Wallets's Photographic Studio. Good going for this year's shutterbugs!

DEBATE CLUB
SEATED: P. Blake; B. Estep; J. Beeghly; J. Rogers; R. Hammar.
STANDING: J. Solomon; Mr. Williams (Adviser); J. Obendorfer.

This year the Debate Club has instituted a new policy whereby the members now participate almost exclusively in individual events. The club has gone to Canton, Niles, and Wadsworth to join in tournaments of National Forensic League, of which Boardman is a member. In April the club sent representatives to the Student Congress at Wooster. The officers who have directed the activities are Jerry Obendorfer, President; Maryan Loupe, Secretary; and Barbara Estep, Treasurer. Mr. Williams, the Adviser, is to be congratulated.

. . . Projection Club act as audio-visual aides

Hollywood producers take notice! Send your scouts to a meeting of B.H.S. Projection Club, where they will find the future "camera grinders" in action. These boys have added another successful year to the history of the club.

The class movies and the sound system at parties, assemblies, and athletic events owe their popularity to these skilled members.

President Robert Ewing, Vice President Robert Hammar, and Secretary-Treasurer Ronald Pellin, and Adviser, Mr. Hawk, have capably led the club through another prosperous year.

"Quiet! Mad scientists at work!" This is the sign you might see on the biology door every second and fourth Tuesday when the Science Club is meeting. To prove that there were really some geniuses in the group, the club sponsored a fair at which they displayed the results of their labor.

The club also took a hike through Mill Creek Park and completed the year with an enjoyable trip to the Planetarium and the Carnegie Museum in Pittsburgh. The group was guided on these tours by Dave Crouse, President; Walter Spikell, Vice President; Doris Goudsmit, Secretary; and Clifton Anderson, Treasurer.

If you heard lockers being closed long after the bell had rung and everyone was supposed to be in class, here's hoping you didn't worry too much about it. This is one of the duties of a monitor along with keeping an orderly atmosphere in the halls, removing paper from the floors, and courteously escorting all visitors to the office. The monitor system was organized several years ago and is under the efficient supervision of Mr. Bohn. The monitors of each forthcoming year are selected by the Board of Directors.

. . . Industrial Arts boys keep saws buzzing

Anyone desiring a nail hammered or a board sawed should see one of the members of the Industrial Arts Club. This newly-organized group has opened a field of many advantages to those who possess the ability to create and build. This skill is also very beneficial, for there is a large market for the articles they produce.

This year the members elected Ron Pellin Head Carpenter, Edwin McConnell First Apprentice, Dick Reese Recorder, and Vernon Mesmer Chief Accountant. Mr. Gulgin acted as Foreman.

. . . Boosters' mighty lungs cheer team on to victory

CHEERLEADERS: H. McMasters; J. Chessrown; C. Ransom; M. Evans and "Boosters."

The spirit behind those cheers echoed at all the B.H.S. games originated from the lungs of the mighty Boosters. These people are the faithful ones who merged from many a game with sandpaper voices. Leading all this enthusiasm were Nancy Schaffer, President, and Sally Phillips, Vice-President; Jean Rozinak, Secretary; Doty Hershberger, Treasurer; and their faithful Adviser, Mr. Ballinger. Not only did these students yell their heads off cheering the team but they also worked them off decorating the goal posts or the gym before the games. School spirit is the thing that pushes our team on to victory, so let's give these pep promoters the big hand they deserve.

The Y-Teen year opened officially with a bonfire, which was soon followed by the Touchdown Toddle. Chocolate bars were sent overseas in care of International Y-Teens, and canned goods were collected for the needy of our community. Each club held a recognition service and tea for the mothers. At Christmas the high school was entertained by the Y-Teen - Hi-Y assembly and inspired by the traditional caroling through the halls. Then came the biggest event of all, the Sweetheart Ball, at which Margaret Williams and Jerry Carlson reigned. Through all these activities the two clubs, Collega Y-Teens and Avida Y-Teens, were skillfully led by Peggy Brown and Betty Brown and their respective cabinets.

This year the juniors and seniors wishing to enter the teaching profession joined the Future Teachers of America. Mr. Tidd, Adviser, acquainted them with the teaching profession by pointing out the different fields in which teachers were needed, the desirable qualities a teacher should possess, and the training each person must have to be a moulder of youth. The members were given opportunities to teach in the lower grades in order to gain experience. This club is ideal for helping students to decide their career.

Among several organizations in Boardman Township which try to train young boys to become good citizens, the Hi-Y has accomplised this end most successfully.

On February 22 at Pleasant Grove Church the club held a Father-Son Banquet at which Mayor Henderson was guest speaker. In April the strains of sweet music introduced the Annual Hi-Y Prom, a sparkling success.

. . . Cadet Teachers lead little ones

For all future physical education teachers the ideal way to gain experience is to belong to Cadet Teachers. Each student instructor spends half an hour a day training a group of elementary or junior high students in good sportsmanship by playing supervised games with them. Meanwhile the classroom teachers can relax, knowing that their little charges are in safe hands.

In March comes the greatly anticipated Gym Jamboree, and in May the Cadet Teachers are rewarded by a picnic.

The bands of Boardman High School, under the direction of Mr. Bame have become a community asset never to be forgotten. Their pep, color, and skill quicken the hearts of young and old and bring new vitality into our lives. Mr. Bame's ingenuity, combined with the cooperation of the members, produced clever formations, which will take a back seat to none. Come rain or shine, the Marching Band played at all football games. For the second consecutive year they were invited to play in the All-Star game on Thanksgiving Day.

In April, the band gave a concert matinee for the high school and an evening performance for the public. Mr. Bame also took the group to Kent for the Northeast Conference of the Ohio Band Contest. They also furnished the music for the lively Memorial Day Parade.

Mr. Bame hopes to send the band to a band camp on Lake Erie the month of August.

Hats off to the B. H. S. velvet voices! Yes, here they are, our superb chorus—the voices the entire community enjoys listening to (and the entire school is forced to listen to seventh period!) But seriously, we are proud of their well-directed program; for this, Mr. Bame deserves full credit.

On February 23, in performances before the high school and the public, the group displayed not only their musical talent, but also their new stoles, purchased from the funds in their treasury. Traveling to Butler, Pennsylvania, they entertained the veterans at Deshon Hospital. On March 31 the group entered a musical contest at Leavittsburg, Ohio, where they received two excellent ratings and one superior rating. A distinguished honor was paid the choral group when they were invited to sing at Westminster College on May 5. Yes, our chorus really travels around; and we are proud of their activities. Their officers were Judson McConnell, President; Alfred Hammar, Vice-President; Ellen Peterson, Secretary; and Delores Allen, Reporter.

Majorettes lead band "Down the Field" . . .

The high-stepping girls pictured above are the ten majorettes who lead the band during the half-time performances at the football games. These girls, under the direction of Mr. Bame, have won wide acclaim for their perfected art of executing difficult routines. This fall they also accompanied the band at the Canfield Fair and will do so again this year. This year's head majorette, Martha Clark, did a commendable job and it is with anticipation that we look forward to seeing our peppy and colorful majorettes next year.

Boys' Glee Club blends voices in bass cleft . . .

The musically inclined boys of Boardman find many outlets for their ability. One of the most important is the Boys' Glee Club.

This year, the sixteen members proved their usefulness as a permanent unit in our school organization when we witnessed a display of their talent at the Christmas Concert and again on February 23rd.

Aside from the enjoyment of entertaining others, the members have gained valuable reading experience and greater skill in singing.

Much of the success of the club can be attributed to Mr. Bame, who trained the members and organized them into a well-knit musical group.

. . . Stardusters give out with heavenly music

The newly formed Swing Band, a small group of smooth-playing students, proved they packed all the style of a professional dance band. They played for the veterans at Deshon Hospital at Butler, Pennsylvania, and at the Band Mothers' party. All the school and Kiwanis dances received the benefits of their music, and The Copper Carnival this year scored tremendous success, no part of which was due to this Band.

. . . Girls' Glee Club soars in treble cleft

At the other end of the scale from the deep male voices are the lilting sopranos and altos which make up the Girls' Glee Club. They entertained the school at Christmas time at the annual Yuletide celebrations with seasonal carols. Then again at the Spring Concert their voices painted a musical picture of "Bendermeer's Stream" and a walk on "Velvet Shoes."

Sports . . .

"ALL aboard for the football, basketball, baseball, and track special!" cry the cheerleaders as the B.H.S. rooters rally to support their team. This loyalty is well earned by the Boardman athletes, who, whether in victory or defeat, possess the true Spartan spirit. Much credit is due to the excellent coaching staff, who make it possible for the team to stay in the winning column.

Boardman fully realizes that good sportsmanship is necessary for good citizenship. As long as a student is capable of participating, a host of recreational activities is open to him. Girls, as well as boys, have the opportunity to develop their talents in the sports of their choice.

We can all be proud of this year's team for their fine competitive spirit and the many honors captured by their skill.

Mighty Spartans roar over goal lines . . .

The first championship in the Spartans' postwar football era was written into the record books last fall as Coach "By" Morgan's gridders scored seven victories, tied one, and lost their opener to a rough East Liverpool eleven. The Spartans this past season captured their first Tri-County Championship in five years as they tied with Lisbon for the trophy. It will also be their last, for next year they move into the Steel Valley League. By trouncing Sebring, while coming within one touchdown of the school's record of 65 points set last year against Minerva, the Spartans assured themselves of permanent possession of the Little Brown Jug.

Mr. Gulgin, Mr. Dolan, Mr. Friend, and Mr. Genuske assisted Coach "By" Morgan to perfect our smooth-working championship eleven. The team also placed Dick Kadis, Dick Wellington, Jay Chuck, Angelo Iannucci, and Dick Beck on the All-Star Tri-County Team.

Junior Varsity . . .

The J. V.'s finished the season with a 3-3 record, losing to Salem, Poland, and Newton Falls, and defeating McDonald, Lisbon, and East Palestine. When the J. V.'s invaded McDonald for the first game of the season, they had little trouble defeating them. The Salem Quaker Juniors pulled an upset by defeating the Spartan Juniors 39-0. The following week the Boardman J. V.'s beat Lisbon 12-7. The Spartans next dumped East Palestine and then lost the two following games against Poland and Newton Falls. This was the first season the J. V.'s ever lost any contest in their three seasons of play.

. . . Speedy five send balls soaring through hoops

For the first time since Boardman entered the Tri-County League, the Spartans not only came home with their first Tri-County championship, but also finished the season with a record of twenty-one victories and only two setbacks.

The only blemishes on the Spartans' record were upsets by Campbell Memorial, and Youngstown Rayen. The Memorial contest, a non-league game, gave the Boardman boys an idea of the type of competition they can expect when they enter the newly-formed Steel Valley League next season. Youngstown Rayen defeated the Spartans 47-39 in the Northeastern Ohio District Tournament at South High Fieldhouse. The Spartans had won two tournament games previous to this upset.

Much credit should be given to Mr. Dolan and Mr. Gulgin, who coached the team in this triumphant year. Good luck to next year's team. May its record be as fine as this year's.

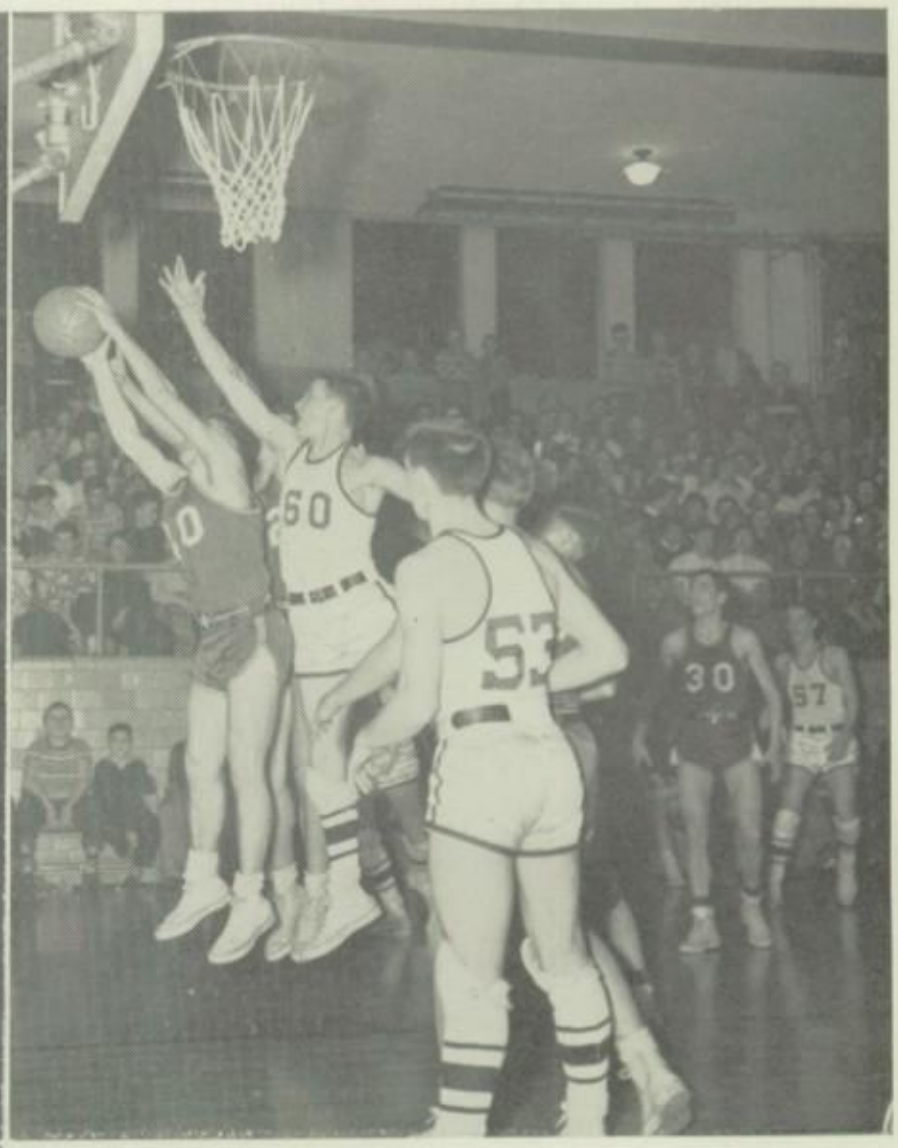
Who fired that shot?

A near miss.



Fiffick pushes in two.

B. H. S. 61—North 46

As has been the practice in the past, the Spartans started the season against North. The Spartans held a commanding lead throughout. Jerry Suess led the scoring with sixteen points.

B. H. S. 56—Fitch 43

The Spartans had little trouble defeating Fitch. Jerry Suess netted nine field goals and fouls for 24 points. Second scoring position went to Jerry Carlson with 13.

B. H. S. 54—Rayen 36

Youngstown Rayen was the Spartans' third victim. The two Jerrys, Suess and Carlson, hit for 14 and 13 respectively. Boardman trailed but once that first quarter 9-8. The Spartans then rallied to lead at half-time 30-14.

B. H. S. 53—Alumni 33

By whipping the Alumni the Boardman quintet proved that the famed ball clubs of the past were no better than this year's squad. Suess drilled in 21 points to remain top point man on the Spartan squad.

B. H. S. 81—Leetonia 29

The Boardman varsity had little trouble with the fifth victim, Leetonia. Jerry Suess tallied twenty-seven markers for the Spartans.

B. H. S. 58—Ashtabula 50

For their sixth game the Spartan quintet journeyed to Ashtabula. Jerry Suess's 32-points kept the Spartan victory string intact.

B. H. S. 54—Wilson 39

The Spartans broke loose in third quarter at the fieldhouse and cheered on by a large delegation of fans, defeated Wilson for the seventh straight B. H. S. victory.

B. H. S. 67—Poland 28

Poland became the Spartans' eighth victim. Though the varsity played only a little over a quarter, Suess was able to garner fifteen points.

B. H. S. 78—Louisville 44

The Spartans gained their second Tri-County victory by dumping Louisville. Jerry Suess netted 27 and was followed closely by Carlson, who had 22.

B. H. S. 60—East 47

The rough-and-tumble style of East High Golden Bears stymied the Spartans for the first two quarters, but the Boardman squad burned up the nets in the third and fourth quarters to win easily.

RESERVE TEAM

KNEELING: R. Beede; R. Ewing; F. Slagle; F. Tavolario; A. McCreary; Mr. Gulgin (Coach).

ROW II: D. Crum (Manager); H. Moff; D. Liechty; H. Warnock; P. Rothwell.

ROW III: J. Fabish; J. Palmer; G. Elioff; J. Beard; D. Oliver (Manager).

BASKETBALL COACHES
Mr. Dolan; Mr. Gulgin.

B. H. S. 57—East Palestine 34

East Palestine became the third Tri-County team to fall. Scoring honors were captured by Jerry Carlson, who hooped in 15.

B. H. S. 53—South 41

Boardman defeated Youngstown South on South's home court. Suess with 26 was high man for the Spartans. This was the first time that a Boardman squad had ever defeated South on their hardwood.

Reserves

The Spartan Juniors again captured the Tri-County Championship for the sixth consecutive time. They finished the season with a record of fourteen victories and two reverses. The reserves broke two records in the Memorial game when Howard Moff established a new individual scoring record by hitting on fourteen from the floor and one from the foul stripe to garner 29 points. Also in this contest the Spartan Juniors established a new team scoring record of 64 points.

Next season the J. V.'s, under Mr. Gulgin, will enter Steel Valley Competition.

R. Hammar

The Spartan diamond men broke even last season winning six games in Steel Valley Competition.

Bob Vogt and Jerry Suess combined their pitching efforts to send such teams as Fitch, Newton Falls, Hubbard, South, North, and Niles down to defeat. Boardman also defeated Youngstown South for the first time since beginning baseball three years ago.

Mr. Dolan, who has coached the squad for the past three years, will again be at the helm in 1951. This season you can expect to see the Spartans near the top of Steel Valley with an all-veteran unit.

ROW II: R. Green; C. Donachie; A. Hammar; R. Beck; D. Lance; A. Iannucci; J. Amstutz.
ROW III: R. Beede; D. Sapienza; R. Kadis; H. Banninga; R. Pellin; J. Mathey.
ROW IV: J. Conway; R. LoGiudice; J. Bender; H. Miller; D. Fitchet.

After a slow start due to bad weather, which hampered practice facilities, the trackmen rolled over six opponents and ended their season with a record of six wins and two losses. The team also took two seconds in two triangular meets.

The thinclads were under the expert tutelage of Coach "By" Morgan and Assistant Coach Allan Ballinger. This was Coach Morgan's fourth year as Head Coach of track. The Track Squad defeated Fitch, Ursuline, Chaney, and North, losing only to Warren and Rayen. Boardman's Track Team took third place in Steel Valley.

Freshman Basketball . . .

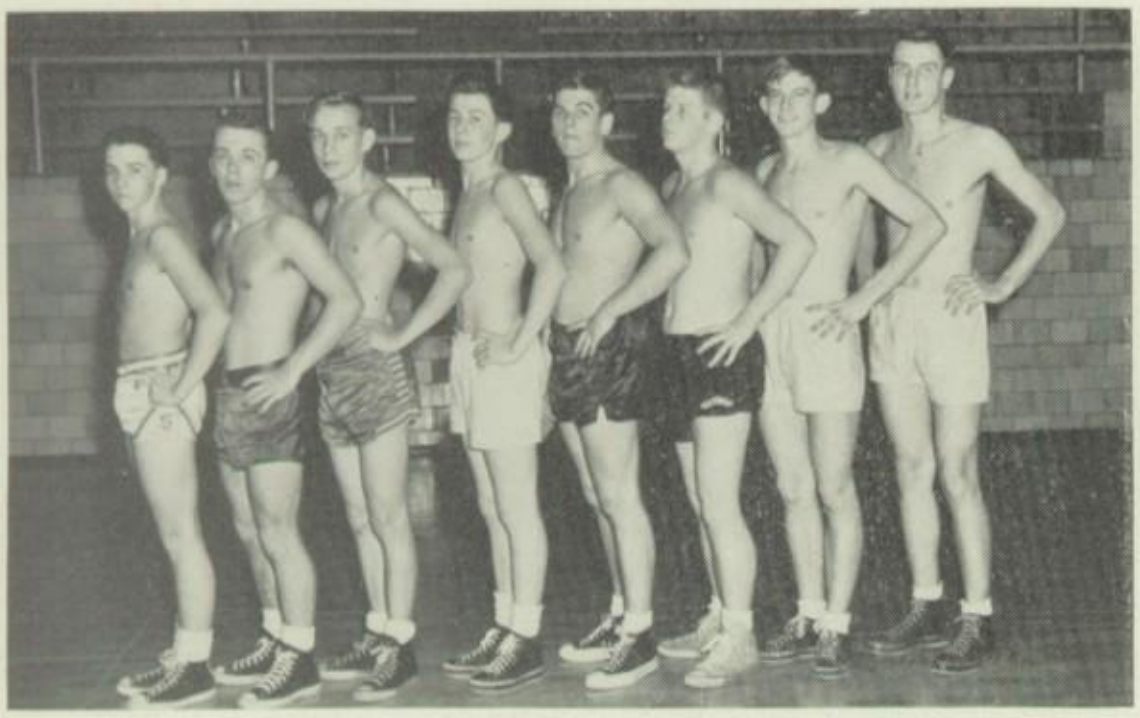
The Freshmen ended their season with five victories and nine miscues. Joe Courtney and Dave McCartney were the big guns for the Spartan frosh quintet. Courtney netted 131 points, while McCartney collected 97 points in the fourteen game season.

The Freshmen were under the direction of Coach "By" Morgan. This year's starters were Dave McCartney, Ron Gleckler, Bob Courtney, Jim Lundy, and Fred Green.



D. Burns; F. Sandstrom; R. Hammar; J. Wilkins; A. Hammar; J. Obendorfer; D. Crouse; J. McConnell.

Hi-Y Basketball . . .

Because of the disbanding of the Hi-Y League, this year's quintet played only one game, the annual Hi-Y - Faculty contest. Although the boys had the height, they proved no match for the better-organized, practice-hardened, faculty five. The latter jumped to a 14-12 lead in the first quarter and maintained the pace throughout. The final score was 81-60 Mr. Gulgin took scoring honors for the teachers. The Hi-Y team expects to compete in league play next year.

ROW I: SITTING: D. Gluck; V. Orru; B. Paddon; M. Binns; E. Borcik; B. Murdock; Mr. Ballinger (Adviser).
KNEELNG: R. Hixenbaugh; R. Harmon; J. Bradshaw.
STANDING: R. Clancy; J. McDonnell; D. Adcock; D. Lance; H. Manchester; R. Williams; D. Garver; D. Fitchet; K. Lloyd; M. Davis; R. Hickey; R. Dash.

Rifle Team . . .

Boardman High is fortunate in having so many "shooting stars" come to rest among her student body. Through the excellent guidance of Mr. Ballinger they have become "crack" rifle shots. In this time of national crisis marksmanship training is more valuable than ever, and the Rifle Club has been alert to our country's need. As is customary, the club competed on a national basis. Members participated in three postal matches, including Class A, ten shots standing and ten prone; Class B, ten prone; and Girls' Class E, ten prone, scoring above average in all classes.

. . . Cheerleaders outdo all in "wim, wigor, and witality"

Behind Boardman's championship team, the "pep and steam" of the cheerleaders helped make this season victorious.

Marilyn Evans, cheerleader for three years, was one of the hardest workers. As her reward, Marilyn was chosen by the football players to reign as their queen.

Carol Ransom, also a candidate for queen, was chosen cheerleader as a junior.

Harriet McMaster and Joan Chessrown have finished their second year of cheerleading and will be assisted next year by Sally Gaskeen and Mary Lou Morris.

. . . G. A. A. ends season with bumps, bruises, and blisters

ROW I: Mrs. Secrist (Adviser); E. Hanigovsky; D. Hershberger; L. Curran; D. Pounders; M. Miller; M. Clark; M. Amey.
ROW II: M. Evans; Z. McKibben; D. Bair; D. Allen; I. Owens; C. Ransom; P. Powell; K. Hendricks; S. Bonser.
ROW III: S. Todd; C. Bodin; M. Wallets; S. Hess; B. Brown; J. Dow; C. McCrudden; B. Estep; N. Woodward; J. Houts.
ROW IV: L Gilboy; A. McCaughey; P. Schmidt; D. Ghering; E. Halt; R. Henderson.

President Linda Curran, her cabinet, Delores Pounders, Laura Brothers, Doty Hershberger, Marlis Miller, and their Adviser, Mrs. Secrist, have successfully carried out the code of the G.A.A. in teaching each girl fair play and a knowledge of sports. Tournaments were held in speedball, kickpin, basketball, volleyball, and baseball. After receiving one hundred points, the girls work toward the ultimate goal, 1800 points and a pin.

The highlights of the club year were a picnic at Poland Woods, an inspiring Recognition Service, and the auunal Splash Party at the "Y".

Will we ever forget the prophecy of Miss Kennedy's eighth grade science class when they planted the tree? Little did they realize that Gordon Rauschenberger would really be President of the senior class one day. Bair to school. Broken legs are a novel way to obtain special privileges, such as getting out of study hall every night from three-thirty to four. Method in your madness, girls? The now famous Swing Band had its first fling in eighth grade when Mrs. Long's room presented a program featuring David Lance, Delores Pounders, Don Miller, Richard Wolfgang, and more of our local talent in their own production. there was Mr. Loth's history class. Do you remember Lloyd DuVall's seat in the back of the room? Wasn't he lucky that it wasn't fastened to the floor? Mr. Loth told Lloyd to take his seat, and Lloyd took it—right up to the pencil sharpener with him. That's not what he meant, Lloyd!

Once again we find the class of '51, this time in 1946 as full-fledged freshmen. How shy and innocent we were, and how unaware of our surroundings! This was all to change, however, in the next four years. Miss Atkinson, trying to convey the meaning of "corpulent" to her Latin class, said, "I am rather corpulent myself." After puzzling over this a while, Jim Wilkins raised his hand and, with a pleased expression, said, "Stoop-shouldered." What an outburst of intelligence! While still ninth graders, we planned and presented the only party ever given by a freshman class. Never let it be said that our class lacked originality! And speaking of originality, remember the discoveries we made in Miss Hykes's science class — scientific discoveries, that is? We spent much of our time sneezing and coughing into Petri dishes in order to study bacteria.

somewhat self-confident sophomores. We say "somewhat" because we still couldn't get away with anything. Remember the time David Crouse was caught burning incense in study hall? Yes, we still had a lot to learn. Poor Miss Longwell had to burn all the Latin tests after discovering that some of the students were coming down with measles. she had to begin again. Study Hall 200 was the scene of innumerable pranks that year, it seems. John Craig enlivened things with caps stuck between the seats. He and his little helper always had something up their sleeves, didn't they? The sophomores went all out that year to win the P. T. Advancing through the years we finally became important juniors. At last we were "Lower-Uppers." That feeling of superiority hit us the very first morning after vacation. Mr. Hershberger really had his troubles that year with the chemistry classes. Feeling anti-social one day the fifth period class all turned their chairs toward the back of the room. Mr. Hershberger, however, ignored them when he

Jim Burns and Bob Glace learned the hard way the day they decided to find out what would happen if they mixed a few miscellaneous acids. What happened, boys? Experience is the best teacher, they say; but it's a wonder that we're here today to try

Congratulations, Classes of 1951!

You've reached the end of a four-year street . . . . . or at least that's the way you feel now. The secret's in the word commencement, though. Commence means to begin . . . you'll begin being a part of a startling new world . . . a world that looks to you to guide it . . . away from fear, oppression, prejudice and hate. "The first years are the hardest," but they're yours! Let's see what you can do with them!

This year those important juniors are now the "Wheels." Yes, we're finally

Now that we've reached the end of our twelve years at Boardman, it's time to shut our Book of Memories and look to the future. In spite of all the pranks we've played, we hope that the goals we did attain will be remembered. You may be sure that we will never forget the wonderful memories which all go together to make the Class of '51—the Class of '51!
